PASTOR'S COLUMN

TODAY AT SAINT AGNES

Mass of Thanksgiving on Corpus Christi Sunday at the 10 am High Mass

Come to Schuler Hall after Mass for coffee and donuts served by the Knights of Columbus.

Next Saturday, May 28th, Archbishop Hebda will ordain to the holy priesthood several men studying for the archdiocese. One of those to be ordained is a son of the parish and a graduate of our high school, Deacon Mark Pavlak. The next day, the Feast of Corpus Christi, Sunday May 29th, Deacon Pavlak will celebrate his first Mass of Thanksgiving at the Church of Saint Agnes.

Deacon Pavlak's family joined the parish in 1994 and he became a student at Saint Agnes School beginning in 2nd grade and made his 1st Holy Communion in 1996 at the very communion rail that he will soon, God willing, be distributing the Most Blessed Sacrament. He was also confirmed through this parish in 2000. Pavlak was a bright and very active student. He was involved in many co-curricular activities: basketball (honored to be selected as a Captain many times); he was in all the musicals since his 2nd grade and played one of the leads in two of the musicals); he sang in choir all 4 years of high school; and was also active in the Pro-life club, Service club and German club. He graduated from our High School in 2005. After which, he went on to study at University of St. Thomas, graduating with a double major in Economics and Catholic Studies. Pavlak even was a high school teacher at St. Agnes for the 2010-2011 school year. Then, sensing a call to serve as a priest, he entered seminary in fall of 2011.

From time immemorial, the path to becoming a priest has often been a veritable climbing through the ranks of various duties in and about the Sacred Liturgy. Deacon Pavlak has had just such a journey here at Saint Agnes. He generously answered the call to assist at Mass as an altar boy beginning in the 4th grade and served at countless Masses including a great many for the late Msgr. Schuler. (In fact, he was gifted an old chalice of the Monsignor). Climbing through the ranks, beginning with torch bearer, he eventually became an MC and was a special assistant to Deacon Harold Hughesdon. Pavlak credits the good deacon with teaching him so much about the Roman Rite. This knowledge served him well as he became a Master of Ceremonies at the seminary for the Rector, Msgr. Callaghan.

I would like to invite as many parishioners as can make it to, the soon-to-be, Fr. Mark Pavlak's Mass of Thanksgiving on Corpus Christi Sunday, May 29th of this year.

Please pray for Deacon Pavlak and all his classmates who are being given the great honor and duty of serving as priests in Christ's church. May God bless all of them and may Holy Mary keep them close to her Son.

Saint Agnes, pray for us.

Christ the High Priest, bless the ministers of Your altar.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Fr. Mark Moriarty

CHORALE & ORCHESTRA NOTES

W.A. Mozart, Trinitatis Mass, K 167 (1773)

Offertory: W.A. Mozart, Church Sonata in C, K 328 (1779)

W.A. Mozart (1765-1791) composed the Trinitatis Mass at age 17. He dated it June 1773 and possibly intended it for Trinity Sunday. Certain biographers of his early years think Mozart may have written this Mass for Salzburg's beautiful Dreifaltigkeitskirche (Trinity Church), which was completed in 1702. These biographers doubt it was written for the city's cathedral, because it does not meet the strict time constraints mandated by the Prince-Archbishop of Salzburg for his cathedral church. However, the Trinitatis Mass is orchestrated as a missa solemnis but without vocal solo arias, which other scholars opine was done by Mozart so that the Mass could meet the requirements of the Prince-Archbishop. In any case, listen for the trumpets and the showy contrapuntal fugue in the final section of the Credo, "Et vitam venturi." The Twin Cities Catholic Chorale is a non-profit corporation, which depends solely on the generosity of its patrons. Programs are posted on the Chorale's website at www.catholicchorale.org. Next Sunday, on the Feast of Corpus Christi, the Chorale & Orchestra will present W.A. Mozart's Mass in C, K 337. This will mark the end of the Chorale's 42nd season at Saint Agnes.
